Motorcyclist dies in accident

A motorcyclist was pronounced dead at the scene
after his bike left the road and crashed near Rushyford on Sunday afternoon, 7th June.

Police said the accident happened at 1.50pm on Middridge Road.

The Triumph 675cc motorbike was heading towards Rushyford from the direction of Woodham golf course.

The rider, identified as a local man in his mid-fifties, lost control of the bike which left the road and hit with a fence and trees.

The rider was confirmed dead at the scene. Police said that although the victim has been positively identified, his name will only be released once it's confirmed that all family members have been informed.

County Plans to tackle youth unemployment

Plans to secure nearly £18m to tackle youth unemployment in County
Durham are to be considered.

A report outlining an action plan to secure Youth Employment Initiative (YEI) funding went before Durham County Council's Cabinet meeting on Wednesday, 10th June.
A total of £17.87m, made up of £13.4m of YEI funding and £4.47m match funding, is available to the county to help young people who are struggling to find work.
The Youth Employment Initiative was set up by the European Council in 2013
to tackle unemployment among young people aged 15 to 24.

Latest figures show that there are 8,400 out of work 16 to 24 year olds in County Durham and 2,085
18 to 24 year olds claiming Job Seekers Allowance, or

4.1% of the resident population (the national rate in England being 2.7%).
However, the report states that, "this does not include the significant numbers of 18-24 year olds who are not claiming benefits."

An activity group made up of various local partners, including voluntary and community organisations, colleges, Jobcentre Plus,
the County Durham Youth Offending Service and Youth Contract and Work Programme providers, has come up with various measures to deal with youth unemployment,
which include: individual
guidance and support;
specific programmes to help vulnerable young people and creating employment, apprenticeship and traineeship opportunities and work experience.
The measures aim to get around 5,500 young people in the county who are unemployed or inactive into work, training or education, the report states.

The funding bid is being led by Durham County Council, which has identified £2.15m
of match funding available.
Cllr Ossie Johnson, Cabinet member for children and young people's services, Durham County Council, said: "By securing the full £17.87m we will be able to improve the immediate and longer-term economic, social and health prospects of thousands of young people in the county.

"It would also mean that we would be able to introduce new and innovative ideas alongside more tried and tested models."

The report recommends that Cabinet notes the progress in developing an initial application for the Youth Employment Initiative in the county.

The Mayor of Ferryhill, Councillor Pauline Crathorne, recently presented a cheque for £340 to Stephen Kelly, Christine Woods, Councillor Peter Atkinson and Councillor Brian Avery of Ferryhill Banner Committee.

The donation will be used towards transport and expenses to take the Dean and Chapter Banner and the Mainsforth Banner to Durham Miners Gala on Saturday 11th July, accompanied by Ferryhill Town Band.

A spokesperson for the council said: "This donation is an example of the Town Council's commitment to supporting local organisations working for the benefit of the community in Ferrihill.

The development of a Neighbourhood Plan for Ferryhill, funded by the Town Council, has progressed to stage two, with the council now looking for volunteers to become part of the Working Group that will take the plan forward. A council spokesperson explained: "There are five main stages to the plan: define the neighbourhood; preparing the plan; independent check; community referendum and legal force. "Progress has been made and stage one is complete and the whole of Ferryhill has been designated as a Neighbourhood Plan area.

"Stage two of the process is commencing and that includes building extensive research and consultation with the local community to ensure Ferryhill is a developing town and maintains a strong sense of community whilst embracing a sustainable and prosperous future.

"We are looking for a small number of Ferryhill residents and business owners to become part of the Working Group to move the development forward.

"If you are interested then please email dsnowball@ferryhill.gov.uk or telephone 01740 652157 during office hours, by no later than 5pm on Wednesday, 17th June.

Police Commissioner congratulates force

Police performance has been under scrutiny as Durham's Police and Crime Commissioner, Ron Hogg, publishes his latest Public Performance Report.

Figures published last week by the PCC show that crime has stayed static in 2014-15 despite cuts to policing and wider austerity affecting communities. The number of solved crimes is up, and anti-social behaviour is falling.

Between April 1, 2014 and March 31 this year, 32,206 crimes were reported to police compared to 32,156 the previous year.

The proportion of victim-based crimes solved across the force area was up from 32% to 39%. Anti-social behaviour has gone down by 3 per cent across the Constabulary area.

Mr Hogg met with the force Executive Team at a board meeting on Wednesday, 3rd June to discuss the results. Afterwards he said: "This performance caps an excellent year for Durham Constabulary, during which it was rated by Her Majesty's Inspectorate of Constabulary as the only force in the country to be outstanding at investigating crime."

"I scrutinise performance very carefully on behalf of the public. But I also want the public to be able to do so too. That is why I am publishing these results transparently, and openly, in a user-friendly and accessible format."

The Public Performance Report is available at: www.durham-pcc.gov.uk/Your-Police/Performance/Police-Performance.aspx

Local carers charity organises events for National Carers Week

Durham County Carers Support, which provides services and support for carers, is running events across the county in conjunction with National Carer's Week.

A week of events has been planned to celebrate National Carer's Week.

Durham County Carers Support (DCCS) have arranged information days and events across the County to raise the awareness of Carers' issues and promote communities to become carer friendly.

Carers provide unpaid support to family, friends or neighbours who can't manage without their help.

When a community is Carer friendly, every aspect of a Carer's life, from hospitals to the workplace, is geared towards addressing the needs of Carers.

This means obstacles will be removed to make sure things are done in a different way so a Carer's life is made easier. Small changes can make a big difference. A Carer friendly community would include employers creating Carer Friendly policies or a GP practice offering alternative appointment times for Carers who are unable to attend due to their Caring responsibilities.

Jenni Wood CEO of DCCS said: "We would like organisations across the County to work with us to build communities which support Carers to look after their loved ones while recognising that they are individuals with needs of their own. "We have events all week in supermarkets, GP Surgeries, Beamish Museum and Durham Cathedral to help us raise awareness across the County."

For more information or to register as a Carer contact DCCS on 0300 005 1213 or visit the organisation online at www.dccarers.org or at Facebook.

The maximum duration of the temporary closure under the Order is 18 months and is required from 29/06/15 for 2 weeks. However, on rare occasions, alternative dates for closures may be necessary and these will be signed accordingly. Alternative route: via other local roads in the area.

New Dance Generation scoop 14 trophies at championships

Dance teacher, Hannah Wilkinson, and her dancers celebrate a successful North East Championship, where the group scooped a haul of 14 trophies.

Local dance school, New Dance Generation, had a busy month in May preparing for their annual dance showcase and North East Championship competition. On 15th and 16th May, 90 pupils from the age of two took part in a showcase of dance routines which the children had been learning. They performed in front of over 200 people each night and were congratulated with a standing ovation on both of their performances.

Dance teacher, Hannah Wilkinson, congratulated the dancers: "All of the children put on an amazing performance," said Hannah. "I would also like to thank all of the loyal parents for their support." The following week, 45 dancers from NDG took to North Shields to compete in the North East championships and after a very long day, the team came home with an amazing 14 trophies in total. "This is an outstanding achievement for such a new group," said Hannah. "Even NDG dad, Daniel Mason came home with a trophy for second place after his comedy performance in the parent round." NDG is currently working towards their performance in the summer fair at Dean Bank, followed by the next exams in July and another competition in November. Anyone interested in joining the group can speak to a member of staff at Ferryhill Hub or via facebook at facebook.com/newdancegeneration.

Have your say...

Dear Editor

Please could people be vigilant in nature reserves and open pasture land for youths with air rifles and poachers.

We have had reports of youths going into the ex Tarmac Quarry with air rifles and shooting at birds.

This has been reported to the police. Snares have been found at Bishop Middleham Nature Reserve and also a decapitated fox.

Our wildlife is very important to the countryside and we are lucky to have such a variety of birds on our doorstep including bull finch, gold finch, tree sparrows etc.

Our Durham Deer Watch members will be patrolling all nature reserves at regular intervals and any suspected potential wildlife crimes will be reported.

Please telephone 101 and report any suspected crimes.

Yours sincerely,

Banner Group delighted by polo shirt donation

Members of the Ferryhill Banner Group show off their new polo shirts, donated by Graham Walton (third from left) of Walton's Concrete.

Ferryhill Banner Group was delighted recently to be presented with a donation of polo shirts by Walton's Concrete.

The company provided polo shirts to the group, ensuring that the people who support the carrying of the banners in Ferryhill and at Durham Miners gala will have a distinct identity.

"We can't thank Graham enough for this brilliant donation, and we can't wait for the Durham Miners

Gala weekend to be able to show off our polo shirts," said a banner committee spokesperson, adding: "The Polo shirts have, on the back, the names of many local businesses and community groups who have supported the Banner group since its formation in 2013, while the name of Valman Woods is embroidered onto the sleeve with a miners lamp, in memory of the great work Valman did for many years ensuring funds were available for the Durham Miners weekend.

"If anyone would like a polo shirt the Banner Group can order them and negotiate a great price.

"Contact anyone involved with the Banner Group as soon as possible to ensure you have yours for Durham Miners Gala."

Flyer urging parents not to make kids scared of police goes viral

A poster telling parents that their kids should not be scared of the police has gone viral around the world with nearly 5.6 million views.

The poster was produced by Durham Constabulary's media and marketing team and was based on a similar campaign in the USA.

It aims to change the way parents talk to their children about the police with the message that youngsters should see their local officers as people that will help them if they are in trouble rather than lock them up if they are badly behaved.

The poster features an officer from the Road Policing Unit and it seems his picture is causing quite a stir amongst the force's Facebook followers.

The poster was put on Facebook at the beginning of the month and within 24 hours it had received 2.5 million views. By the end of the weekend it had grown to 3.5 million.

The officer commented: "I am flattered by the attention it has received but at the heart of this is a very important message and whatever the reason, I'm just glad this message has who will reassure them. I would hate to think that parents are telling their kids that we will take them to jail if they are naughty... we're not that scary!

Poetry Corner

A mix of Limericks

by Velma Dixon-Parker

There was a young lady from Donegal
Who was invited to go to a ball
Her heart skipped a beat
For she had two left feet
And knew she'd be heading for a fall.

There was a young man from New York
Who went and swallowed a cork
It stuck in his throat
He scribbled a note
As he was unable to talk.

There was a young lady from the W.I.
Who was asked to bake a fruit pie
She baked rhubarb served with custard
By mistake she used mustard
Bringing a tear to many an eye.

There was a young lady from Pity Me
Whilst out walking needed a pee
She pulled down her pants
And watered the plants
Then hurried home for a nice cup of tea.

Mainsforth prove a match for leaders

Mainsforth first XI were in league action last Saturday when Philadelphia were the visitors in a Readers Durham Cricket league first division match.

Winning the toss and batting first Mainsforth declared with the score on 178 for 9 wickets.

Martin Lower continued his fine form with 60, and he had a valuable 5th wicket partnership with Jon Barnes, who was bowled one run short of reaching fifty.

In reply, the Philadelphia innings closed on 136 for the loss of 6 wickets, with Martin Lower rounding off a good day for himself with the impressive bowling figures of 4 wickets for 18 runs.

As a result of their superior run rate, Mainsforth's 13 points moved them up the league by one place into 5th position.

The club second XI travelled to Philadelphia and built up a score of 247 for the loss of 5 wickets before declaring.

Top scorer was 15-year-old, Aidan Cummings, with his maiden senior century (102), with good support from John Sweeney (53).

In reply, Philadelphia were 176 for 4 at the close of play with Curtis Bihari taking 3 wickets.

On Friday night, 12th June, the club first XI are at home to Leadgate in a 20 over cup match starting at 6pm.

The following day, the first team are again at home when league leaders, Castle Eden are the visitors.

The under 11s are at home on Sunday morning, 14th June, against Tudhoe, followed on Monday night by a home match for the under 15s against Brandon. On Tuesday, 16th June, the under 18 side travel to Tudhoe, and on Wednesday the under 13s have a home match against Brandon.
